

Virtual Summer Show Results 2020

Thank you for entering our Virtual Summer Show. Whereas this is may not fully replace the real thing, it gives a good idea of what would have been an excellent show.

As for the Virtual Spring Show and just as a reminder, I am not a judge (just a virtual judge). As this is a virtual show, I can only virtually judge and therefore the results could differ from those had the show taken place as usual at the show ground. The photography classes differ slightly in that the photographic merit of each entry is the subject of my virtual judging. I have given some licence regarding interpretation of the rules such as plants being in the garden rather than picked and in a vase, but some rules have remained in place such as specifics to each class e.g. the number of stems required or hulls being present in cane fruit and in particular the specifics for each home fare class. If a class has attracted only one entry, I have mostly provided comment rather than awarding first place.

Thank you to all who entered.

Richard Haigh, Chairman (and virtual judge)

Show Class	Winner	Comments
Division B - Flowers
B1	Clare Topham	An excellent class with 10 entries making it exceedingly difficult to judge. However, based on what I could see from the photographs the following is my choice. 1 st Clare Topham 2 nd Vera Clarke 3 rd = Jean Lawrence and Simon Quail
B2	Richard Tabor	3 separate pictures of cluster flowered roses, I allowed this as a combined single entry.
B3	Richard Munford	Plus a special mention for Jan Butcher and her fantastic potted rose.
B4	Jan Butcher	You know I mentioned that I wouldn't necessarily award a 1 st if there was only one entry – in this case I have because sweat peas seem to have been a bit difficult this year so getting an entry together is a good job, well done.
B5		No entries
B6	Richard Tabor	A fantastic display of Liliun Pigalle 2 nd Brenda Westbrook 3 rd John Sherlock

J11	Kate Robertson	A good-looking jar of marmalade, peel evenly distributed, jar well filled and good light for the photograph. A shame I couldn't taste this entry, but you know you can always leave a jar by my front door.
J12		No entries
J13	No overall winner	Difficult to judge this entry on picture alone, I am sure it is every bit as good as the one above (same front door!)
