Two MPs to attend Summer Show

The Ellens Green and Rudgwick Gardening Association (EGRGA) hold their summer show this coming weekend (July 2nd) and are looking forward to welcoming two MPs!

The association proudly unites communities across the Surrey/Sussex border and this summer's show is being formally opened by Jeremy Quin MP, while the prizegiving will be done by Angela Richardson MP.

As well as the usual Flower, Fruit & Vegetable, Home Fare, Floral Art & Handicraft classes being exhibited in the main marquee there will be a wide range of stalls and exhibitors from local organisations. Background info:

The Ellens Green and Rudgwick Gardening Association (EGRGA) was founded in 1945 and organises spring, summer and autumn shows every year. They're all popular, the Summer Show being a classic village event with several marquees, brass band and lots of other activities.

2022 is the 77th anniversary of the Association. During lockdown, shows were successfully moved online. EGRGA also pioneered the 'Virtual Open Gardens' concept, which encouraged people to submit videos of their gardens.

EGRGA brings together communities across the Surrey/Sussex border.
